Wheat Allotment in Randall County Is Increased; Continued Rain May Make Planting of Wheat Difficult

Randall county has received a wheat allotment of 207,767 acres which is an increase of 12.7% over the allotment for this year. The allotment is based upon the average over the past four years.

A survey of the situation indicates that the government is taking no chances on the war situation. If the war continues, or gets worse, there will be need of additional wheat; but if the war should suddenly stop, there will probably be a heavy surplus of wheat next year.

The question with the farmers just now is whether they will be able to get 207,767 acres planted to wheat. Due to the heavy moisture, row crops have been planted on a high proportion of the wheat land which was lost by the drouth and green bugs. The row crop has been planted thick, and if the rains should cease and the fall become dry a good portion of this thick crop would dry up and would not produce grain.

The county is in good shape from an agricultural standpoint, and normal rainfall during the fall will make it possible for a continuation of this condition.

The farmers are about three weeks behind with their plowing, killing the weeds from wheat lands. If dry weather hits, the moisture would soon be sapped from the ground.

There is little fear of a repetition of green bugs for the coming year. These bugs seldom hit in two successive years.

There will be no storage problems this fall, either for the row crop or for wheat next year, according to observers.

Randall county has normally 325,000 acres under cultivation. There are more than 200,000 in wheat and 100,000 in row crops normally. County line farms, in both Potter and Swisher cuts down the number of farms within the county. As a result of increased acreage in the farms which leads to a reduced number of farms in the county, the office of PMA of which W. H. Upchurch is the manager is operated at the lowest cost of any office in Texas.

Pioneer Farmer of Randall Died Saturday Morning

With the death of Ernest Asbury Upfold, Randall County lost one of its oldest citizens, both in residence and in age for Mr. Upfold was 90 years old, having been born May 1, 1860 at New Castle, Ohio.

When he was 22 years old, he came to Texas and in 1885 he and Miss Anna Elizabeth Kempf, a native of Barnstadt, Germany were married at Margaret, which is near Vernon, Texas. They were the first couple married in Wilbarger County.

Following the Westward Movement of the time, they came to Randall County in 1892 and homesteaded south of Umbarger. Among their neighbors were Judge L. C. Lair, Dr. J. M. Black, Mr. I. N. Hicks, Mr. G. C. Long, and Mr. R. L. Campbell and their families.

The Upfold family lived on several pieces of land before moving to Canyon in 1900. Recently Mr. Upfold recalled that he was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Canyon Public School in 1905, and that in that year the present Mrs. C. P. Money was elected to teach in the school. The late G. G. Foster had been a member of the school staff also.

Mr. and Mrs. Upfold were parents of 10 children, five sons, Charles and Jim of Canyon, Amos of Fairfield, Ohio, Harris of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Lewis of Bowling Green, Kentucky; five daughters, Mrs. Sam Wiggins and Miss Georgia Upfold of Canyon, Mrs. T. A. Buckner of Fallon, Nevada, Mrs. Lonnie Burch of Bentonville, Arkansas, and Mrs. T. A. Wiggins of Edmondson, Texas; 21 grandchildren, and 28 great grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held in the family home at 10:00 o'clock Monday morning with Mr. Joe Watson, minister of the Church of Christ in Canyon, officiating. Pallbearers were six grandsons: Henry, Frank, Harris, Modean, and J. W. Wiggins, and Jim Burch. Burial was in Dreamland cemetery under the direction of Griggs-Warren Funeral Home.

Publishers To Hold Regional Conflab no Sept. 23 at Hereford

The Panhandle Press Association will hold its next regional meeting at Hereford on Sept. 23, being the guests of the Hereford Brand.

Meetings have been held at Perryton, Canyon, Wellington, Childress, Littlefield, Borger, during the past two years since this idea was started.

Several officers of the Panhandle Press Association attended the 40th anniversary party of the publisher of the Canyon News Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Buchanan of Oklahoma City spent the week-end in the Ray Campbell home. Mrs. Buchanan is the former Jane Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Starnes and son, Curtis, of Sarrgutt, Iowa, arrived Monday morning to visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lowry. Mrs. Starnes is Mrs. Lowry's granddaughter and Curtis her great grandson.

Attend Bingo party Monday night, Legion Hall. Everybody invited.

Recreation To Close Program Friday, Aug. 18

The Canyon talent program and free show drew another record crowd at the Olympic theater last Saturday.

This program sponsored by individual citizens and assisted by the recreation department is original in that it is designed not only to give the children a good time but to educate them about various civic matters. Each week, in addition to the free show, a person from police, fire, or health department speaks to the group. Last week a patrolman from Amarillo spoke to the boys and girls about the duties of their policemen. On August 19 the fire chief of Amarillo will send one of his men to speak on fire hazards.

Each program is financed by a citizen of Canyon. Last week Clyde Davis sponsored the program, the week before W. J. Wooten was the financier.

A great many people are responsible for the talent show. Mrs. Lee Foster is accompanist for the program, Jack Walker acts as master of ceremonies, and Vergie Haines is responsible for all the children who participate in the program.

The next program will be August 19 at 9:30.

S. B. Whittenburg Here on Monday

S. B. Whittenburg of the Amarillo Times was here Monday talking with local business men regarding the new trading stamps which the Times announced in Sunday's edition.

Local merchants expressed interest in the new stamps and they will likely soon appear in Canyon.

Mr. Whittenburg was a resident of Canyon for several years while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Whittenburg were living.

Palo Duro Park Continues Draw Big Attendance

A record attendance of 77,457 persons have passed through the gates of the Palo Duro State Park. The attendance last week was 3505.

The record for the year is far above the attendance of any previous year, states John McCarty, concessionaire.

Reynald Long of Amarillo won the bicycle in the attendance drawing last Sunday.

Bill Lockhart will give a $150 painting of the Palo Duro Canyon in the drawing which will be held next Sunday.

County Cleans Up City Jail as a Prisoner Standby

Otto White has been named constable of precinct No. 1 by the Commissioners Court, in charge of the city Jail, which has not been used for several months.

The jail will be cleaned up and will be put in use on a temporary basis by the county. When prisoners are picked up in the evening they will be thrown in the city jail until a hearing has been had. If the offense is serious, the prisoner will be lodged in the Potter county jail.

Mr. White was nominated for constable in the July Democratic primary election in a write-in. He will be elected in November and will take office in January.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Furlow, Kathryn, and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Taylor and children left Saturday on a vacation trip to El Paso.

Attend Bingo party Monday night, Legion Hall. Everybody invited.

Open House Party of News Brings Large Group of Friends

There was a good crowd in the Canyon News office throughout the day Saturday while Open House was in progress. The office opened from 9 to 12 in the morning; and from 2 until 6 in the afternoon.

During the noon hour members of the staff surprised Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warwick with a chicken dinner in honor of the 40th anniversary of the publisher.

Flowers started to arrive soon after the opening of the building, much to the surprise of the publisher. Soon afternoon when a local pastor arrived to extend congratulations, the publisher advised the preacher to get his church ready for a funeral as the publisher would never rate such a delightful display of flowers even at his own funeral. Yes, the flowers were delightful, and added much to the occasion. They came from all points over the Southwest.

During the day telegrams, letters and cards poured into the News office from well wishing friends, and telephone calls were received from many sections of the state.

Frankly the Newsman had no idea that there would be such a response. First from the citizens of Canyon who expressed their appreciation in last week's issue of The News; and secondly, from the messages and flowers which were received from those dear friends and associates throughout the past 40 years.

Flowers were placed in the churches of Canyon for Sunday services as the News family wished to share their beauty with the congregations who had assembled to worship the One who has made all good things in this world possible.

Mrs. W. I. Wester won the $10 attendance prize by estimating the registration at 565. Cards were turned in by 569, practically all adults from this section of the Southwest. There was a good crowd in the building throughout the day, but never was there a heavy rush of people trying to get into the building.

The News is a little disappointed in not having received letters of criticism and on general promotional policies. We have always found that criticism is the best way in overcoming faults and shortcomings—both of which are abundant in the lives of all of us.

While we have been trying to make good hands in the promotion of good will in Canyon throughout the past 40 years, your expression of deep appreciation makes all of us, here at the News office, more than ever obligated to all of you, and makes us more determined to produce a better newspaper than we have ever done in the past.

We have often heard that the first million dollars was the hardest to make; Not so with friends. We have had a million dollars' worth of pleasure from the expression of gratitude which has been extended to all of us, and will start on our "second 40 years of service," with renewed faith in humanity and a greater determination to serve better our fellow man in Randall county.

City Pays Off on Damages Due to Widening Highway

All property owners along highway 87 who have signed easements for widening of the highway have received their checks from the city of Canyon.

Those who have signed easements, but have property to move or to be removed, will be paid on the proportion basis as the work advances.

The city still has a few cases pending on which settlements have not been made with the property owners.

Appeal from the verdict of the condemnation jury has been taken by one property owner. This case will go to county court.

It is anticipated that condemnation proceedings will be necessary in other cases which have not yet been settled.

Mrs. Austin Fullingim of Petersburg is visiting with her mother, Mrs. N. A. Croson.

Hayden Weaver Resigns County Attorney's Job

HAYDEN WEAVER

County Attorney Hayden Weaver has filed his resignation with the Commissioners Court to become effective August 15.

Weaver was recently a candidate for District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District, being defeated by H. C. Pipkin, Jr.

He will join the firm of Singleton, Trulove & Edwards as a junior partner. Morris G. Cobb, candidate for the legislature, is associated with this firm. The law offices of the firm are being moved this week to the new First National Bank building in Amarillo.

Mr. Weaver filed his resignation last week, but the court has taken no action. Gene McGlasson was nominated to the office of County Attorney in the July primary, and is a candidate for appointment to fill out the office until Weaver's term expires in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver own their home in Canyon and will not move to Amarillo for the present. They will probably make the move a little later after he gets settled in his new work in Amarillo.

C. E. Hightower Has Sold Monarch Cleaners to Clark

C. E. Hightower has sold the Monarch Cleaners to Ken Clark, who took charge of the business Saturday.

Mr. Hightower built the building and installed the equipment for the business. Because of his health he was advised to get out of the cleaning business for awhile, but will continue to make his home in Canyon.

Mrs. Hightower has recently undergone two serious operations, but is feeling fine at the present time.

Happy Will Hold Anniversary on the 19th of August

A free barbecue, followed by a rodeo will be the feature attractions of Happy's 44th Birthday Celebration on August 19th.

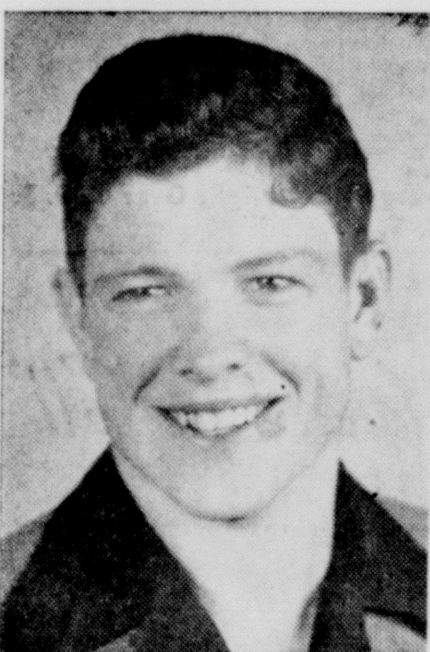

Mrs. H. M. Baggaly was the only woman who lived in Happy for the first 7 months of the town's history. She was formerly a correspondent of the Canyon News. She now lives in Tulia with her son, who is a member of the Tulia schools faculty.

Visitors in the Harry Green home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Green and children of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. George Green and children and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Green of Friona.

Canyon Hi Star Was Star North Hi School Team

JOE ABBOTT

Thursday night after the sixth annual North-South All-Star basketball game, Joe Abbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Abbott, was named the outstanding player on the northern team, coached by Frank Iba of Oklahoma A. & M.

The game was played in Gregory Gym on the campus of the University of Texas. With 7 of the 34 points made by the North to his credit, Joe was second high point man of the game.

In a truly admirable way Joe was in there playing ball as only those basketball fans who have seen him play know that he can play—shooting, dribbling, guarding.

Sports announcers and writers used such terms as "The Mighty Midget" and "5'4" of dynamite" in referring to the player from Canyon.

A 1950 graduate of Canyon High School, "Little Joe" was a member of the Class A State Champion Team for 1950. He was awarded a Lord Elgin watch. The All-Star Basketball game was sponsored by the annual Coaching School in Austin.

Talent Hunt at Olympic Brings Varied Program

The Canyon Community Recreation department summer program will close on August 18.

After ten weeks of "fun for all," the program will end at the high school playground with a watermelon feed for all children who have participated in the program since its opening on June 12. A big party is being planned. There will be all kinds of games, pet shows, contests, free movies, and watermelon for all who attend on the closing day.

The parents of all children of Canyon are especially invited to make plans to attend the closing day of the summer program in order that they might see the activities that the children have been following throughout the past ten weeks.

Plans are underway to carry on a very extensive winter recreation program for the people of Canyon and Randall county, should the response warrant such a program.

BOY SCOUTS, TROOP 66, WILL MEET TO ORGANIZE

Wednesday, August 9, at 7:30 in the Varsity Dressing Room at West Texas State, Boy Scouts of America, Troop 66, will meet in a special meeting to reorganize the troop. All Scouts and boys 11 years or older who would like to join are urged to attend. Mr. R. E. Harrison is the Scoutmaster.

Two pictures were taken of the front store at the Canyon News building Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Pat Britain of the Britain Studio. The views indicate that a good sized group of citizens were in the store at the time of the pictures, and the display of flowers were most elaborate. While the flower lovers were enjoying the beauties of the display, a score of other folks were enjoying Cokes and visiting with neighbors in the printing plant of the business.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Millions, and Millions of Thanks From The Canyon News

Thanks, a million thanks for all of the nice things which have been said about The Canyon News and the publisher since the 40th Anniversary Edition came out last week.

The News has received telegrams, letters and cards from all over the Southwest, and friends in all parts of the nation sent their kindest regards. As a matter of fact we did not know we had so many friends. Sometimes a fellow gets down in the dumps and feels that the world is against him. We have never been in such a depressed situation, but know of many other fellows who have felt that way, and acted that way. It sure doesn't pay to get into that depressed mood.

A good friend in Minnesota wrote a little note, giving some advice. He conjectured that unless we wanted to live on nothing as a result of investing our money at the normal rate of about 2%, we had better stay in the newspaper business. He had in mind the high taxes and the depreciated value of the dollar when he made this suggestion. We guess that he is about right.

At any rate, the Newsman is very, very happy over the entire occasion.

The people of Canyon and Randall county could never have been nicer to any person or to any firm than it has to The Canyon News family. Canyon is truly a "Good Place in Which to Live."

Yes, and as we have repeated time and time again, and shall repeat many times in the future, The Canyon News has the lowest advertising and subscription rates of any newspaper in the Panhandle. We may sound silly to be bragging about low rates, in these days of soaring prices, but actually, we prefer to have a large patronage at low rates than a smaller patronage at higher rates.

The News carried advertising and congratulations from 131 individuals and firms in the last issue. That is more than 95% of all the business and professional firms of Canyon. We printed a 32-page edition. Had we been charging higher rates, the chances are that many of those firms and individuals who used the advertising columns to carry their messages to the people of Canyon, would have not been interested.

No, we are not arguing that lower rates are a good thing for any newspaper. If mounting costs continue to mount, we shall soon be forced to increase advertising and subscription rates. But we believe that our low rates are so fully appreciated by the people of Randall county that they are grateful for the privilege of using the newspaper to carry their messages.

Thanks, again, kind friends. We are very grateful that the fellow who thought he was buying the newspaper a few months ago backed out. We cannot conceive of a more pleasant job than running a newspaper which serves so many kind friends.

The People Have Decided That Russia Must Be Whipped Now

The people of America have decided that Russia must be whipped, and the quicker the job is done the better it will be for mankind.

If you do not believe this statement, just go out on the street and ask the man around town what the people think about the situation.

The President is the most backward man in the nation in his thinking. He is holding back while the nation goes forward. He preaches peace while there is no peace in sight.

We have always been impressed by the continued statement of Bernard Baruch and his demands for all-out war preparation. It was Baruch who advised Roosevelt to put a ceiling on both labor and raw materials during World War II. Roosevelt refused, and prices skyrocketed.

Baruch again renews his ceiling demand, but Truman is sidestepping the issues. Prices are again soaring, and will continue to soar while the President tries to make up his mind. At that he will not go against the will of the big labor bosses, most of whom are supporting him.

As we see the situation, Russia is using Korea as a trial ground. She wants to know whether Uncle Sam and his sons will fight. He caught us wholly unprepared, just like Japan caught us, and Hitler caught all of Europe. We are now getting the men and material into the battle. One of these days (before this is printed, we hope) the tide will turn.

One of these days the Bear will tuck his tail and run for Moscow.

Even then we shall still be in a state of uneasiness. While we do not claim to be a war strategist, we renew our hope of many months ago—that Uncle Sam will load up about 1000 B-29s and B-36 and tell Old Joe to either lift the iron curtain and be civilized, or take the consequences. (We had thousands of acres of bombers at the close of World War II, if they have not all been wrecked as junk).

Decline in Number of Votes in Randall In Spite of More Folks

In spite of the fact that the population of Randall county has greatly increased during the past two years; in spite of the fact that poll tax payments have increased; Randall county cast 300 less votes in the July primary than we did in the general election of 1948!

The difference was that in 1948 we were electing a president. Regardless of the fact that the vote in Texas for President does not count for a single thing, yet the folks sure flock to the polls when they get a chance to vote for president.

The run-off primary comes on Saturday, August 26. Sometimes more voters go to the polls for the second primary than will go to the polls for the first primary so many officers are to be named. We hope that all who voted in July will return to complete their official task, and at least 500 more voters, who are qualified, will decide that they should go to the polls.

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson may have gotten economy but the nation wonders what he got for the fifty billions spent since the end of the last war.

Laws that interfere with profits are regimentation; those that protect private property are necessary for the preservation of the American way.

Money-making is an art that some people acquire to a greater extent than others; it is not necessarily a mark of intelligence or public service.

What has become of the old-fashioned correspondent who used to send the editor a letter on current affairs and wind it up with some poetry?

Being a Candidate Is a Hard Life, Financially, Physically

Being a candidate in Texas is a hard life, from a financial, physical, mental standpoint. Take as an example the two candidates for Congress, Altavene Clark and Walter Rogers.

These two candidates had to battle it out in the special election in which 10 Democrats and one lone Republican were entered. Ben Guill, the Republican, won, by the aid of a lot of Democrats.

Six of the Democrats decided that they had enough and dropped out of the running. Four battled for the Democratic nomination, and two more were dropped. Altavene Clark and Walter Rogers were the survivors with the largest number of votes. Now they must see the voters again and campaign for the second primary.

The winner has another race ahead. Regardless of the fact that Congressman Ben Guill already has two strikes on him, due to the old Democratic precedent of "voting the ticket straight," the Democratic nominee must face Guill in November. Thus we see that one of these two, Clark or Rogers, will have engaged in four political battles between May and November.

If you don't think that such races are a strain on the candidates, just get into a political scrap some day with the determination to win.

We, the People, Want—and Cost of Government Has Increased

We see that Pierce Books, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, against Ben Ramsey, charges that Ramsey is personally responsible for the great increase in the cost of state government.

We suspect that Ramsey voted for most of the appropriations which added to the cost of government. But why?

Was it because Ramsey wanted to see the cost of government mount? Was it because Ramsey is extravagant and willing to throw money to the wind?

We happened to have served with Ben Ramsey in the House and know that he was not that kind of a chap. He is not the waster of public funds. Then who is to blame?

That's easy to answer. "We, the people."

Yes, we have rushed down to Austin and up to Washington demanding more money, more money, more money for this that and the other thing. We have implored, beseeched, threatened legislators until they voted for our pet projects.

Brooks is making his third race for public office. He does not understand all of the ramifications of our state government. If asked where he might save money, Brooks would probably be at a loss to give an intelligent answer. When we, the people, want something, we have little or no regard for the feelings of our lawmakers, and do not give a hang as to where they get the money for our pet project.

Every child in the United States is entitled to a good education and it will be profitable for the nation to do something about the job.

What with news stories about marvelous remedies for disease, the chances are that, if they are true, people will find it hard to die.

Railroads Spend Huge Sums For Benefit Shippers

"Never before in history have the railways gambled so much on the future as they are gambling now to provide the nation's shippers with good and adequate service," says Railway Age. The magazine then supports this with an illuminating set of statistics which shows that in the 1946-49 period the money spent for equipment and materials was more than twice as great in proportion to net earnings as in the preceding 16 years. Over $240 was spent in purchases for every $100 of net operating income earned.

During those four years, total railway spending for equipment and materials averaged $1,861,000,000 a year. At the same time, the industry had the smallest net operating income in their history in proportion to the traffic handled. Where, then, did all the money come from? Part came from reserves accumulated in prior years, part from their small profits, part from the sale of equipment trusts, and part from insurance companies which buy and lease equipment to railroads on a rental basis. The point is that the industry has used every financial resource open to it to meet our demand for more and better transportation. And it is still doing exactly that.

But, as Railway Age also said, these huge expenditures cannot be long continued unless there is a substantial improvement in the railroads' net earnings. It is an established principle that the net earnings of regular utilities should be in the neighborhood of six per cent. The railroads have not come within shooting distance of that figure for many years. An industry which is vital to the economy and security of the nation certainly deserves something better than the shabby financial treatment it has received.

Canyon Eagles To Start Training on Next Tuesday

Coach Floyd Murry, new mentor of the Canyon High School Eagles, has announced that football practice will begin Tuesday, August 15. All boys who are interested in trying out for the Eagles team are requested to meet with the coaches on Monday, August 14, either at 9 o'clock Monday morning, or at 3 o'clock in the afternoon for a get acquainted meeting.

Definite times for the daily workouts have not yet been announced. However there will likely be two workouts daily until the beginning of school on Friday, September 1st.

Name Plates Are Being Erected at the Country Homes

Something new is being added to the country homesteads in Randall county. Name plates are being erected. They give the family name and in many instances the name of the community, or the brand used by the owner.

The home demonstration club women of the county are working on this project. They are hoping to get every rural resident in the county to put up some kind of sign telling who lives at each place.

Mrs. John Robinson made a sign with the name and club which was used as a suggested pattern.

Several of the club groups have met and made their signs together. Some are being made by husbands, sons, or in-laws. Some of the signs are wooden, some are metal. The important thing is that the farm people are identifying their homes.

The B. E. McCormick's of Zita Community and the M. B. Brown's of Pleasantview were among those having their signs up by last weekend.

Harley Sadler Gives High Praise to the Sundowners Players

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sadler of Abilene, former West Texas showmen, were here over the week-end and visited the Sundowners out-of-door theatre at the Palo Duro State Park Friday and Saturday nights where Harley made a personal appearance.

For more than 25 years Sadler and his company of comedians visited West Texas towns, putting on plays which were the delight of all citizens.

The movement to revive the old time plays was highly praised by Sadler. He witnessed "Dirty Work at the Cross Roads," which will be repeated Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights of this week.

A large crowd was on hand for the performances the past week, and the number should be increased this week. All Canyon citizens who have not witnessed these week-end plays are urged to visit the park and enjoy the plays which are being put on.

Presbyterian Church Close Sunday School Mission Work Here

The Presbyterian Church will close its Sunday School Mission work in this area and is offering for sale the brick residence which is owned by the Board of Missions.

Mrs. A. B. Haynes has been serving on the Sunday School Mission field since the retirement of Rev. Haynes from the ministry, and the couple have been living in the home.

Rev. and Mrs. Haynes have bought property near Uvalde and expect to move there in a few weeks.

Mrs. Hud Prichard, Diane, and Mrs. Joe Black are leaving Thursday for Mountain View, California.

One Absentee Vote Was Cast Tuesday

Only one absentee ballot has been cast in the run-off election for August 26. This was cast Tuesday morning at the office of T. H. Lair, county clerk.

Those who know that they will be absent from the county on August 26 will have until Tuesday night, August 22, in which to cast absentee ballots.

Couple of Light Showers During the Past Week

Canyon is practically a drouthy district with only two light showers during the past week. This is a decided contrast to the continuous heavy rains of the past month.

The shower Saturday night measured .07 of an inch.

Thunder clouds rolled in Tuesday night, bringing much lightning and thunder, but only .25 of an inch of moisture fell.

The temperature has been running near the 100 degree mark during this week, making the weather unpleasant following the unusually cool July.

Lubbock Remains in Dry Column by Vote

Lubbock will continue in the dry column. In a special election held Saturday on the wet and dry issue, 9,759 voted for prohibition and 5,480 voted to legalize the sale of liquor.

Andrews county also voted Saturday on the liquor issue and rolls up a vote of 664 to continue as a dry county as against 169 to legalize booze.

The vote was very light in both counties.

Court Completed Renditions Review

The Commissioners Court has completed its check of the tax rendition blanks for the present year and made changes in about 250 assessments as rendered by property owners.

The court has notified those property owners who wish to protest increases made by the court to meet with the court on August 21st.

Tidelands Fight Is Taken Up By All Organizations

Houston: Ownership of the basic resources of the nation has been impelled by the Supreme Court Tidelands decision, the Texas Manufacturers Association asserted yesterday in calling upon business associations of other states to take action to help return the submerged oil lands to Texas, Louisiana, and California.

"If the federal government, thru court decisions, establishes the policy of expropriating state lands without just compensation, only a slight additional step will be required for the government to exercise the same powers over private property, irrespective of its type or location," Ed C. Burris, TMA executive vice president, said in a statement. "If the federal government can acquire oil properties in such a manner, there is every reason to believe that in the course of time it will take over other basic resources of the nation."

He made the statement by direction of the TMA Board of Directors, which voted unanimously to urge associations in other states to "take such action as is advisable to bring about the active support of their Congressional delegations in the interest of legislation that will definitely remove the federal government's claim to the Tidelands."

The only Shaw play with a setting in America will star Maurice Evans, most outstanding dramatic actor of his time. The play takes place in the Revolutionary period, and is a satire on Puritanism with a touch of Shavian humor.

Dr. Reinhart arrived last week, and at present is occupied with making plans for the fall. One of the things he intends to do as soon as possible is rearrange the geology and paleontology department of the museum so that it will tell a story.

"Modern war visits destruction on the victor and vanquished alike. Our only complete assurance of surviving World War III is to halt it before it starts."—General Omar A. Bradley.

Trygve Lie, Secretary-General, United Nations: "The United Nations needs all countries and all ideologies, if it is to succeed as it was intended to succeed."

NOTE ON THE YOUNG

Lewis I. Newman, rabbi: "War profiteering can do more to encourage radical sentiment and resistance among the masses than any amount of propaganda from abroad."

Children, a survey shows, are losing their faith in fairy tales. Even so, only a heartless child would abuse a trusting elder.

Charles Hillier Left News to Work in Amarillo

CHARLES HILLIER

The News lost one of its valued employees Saturday night when Charles Hillier resigned to accept a position with the Amarillo Times. He passed the examination for the typographical union several weeks ago and took a place in the mechanical force of the Times on Monday.

Charles started in the printing profession several years ago while he was a student in the Canyon high school. He continued working his way through college on the News force, and received his degree in May. His college work had been interrupted by the war while he served in the Navy.

Dan Cupid has had a part in his decision to move to Amarillo, and the wedding bells are scheduled to ring later this fall.

All of the News force wishes Charles well in his new position on the Times.

FFA Banquet Held
At Childress on the 28th of July

On July 28 at the Area 11 of Future Farmers of America Awards Banquet in Childress, four Canyon boys, Leo Erwin, Travis Payne, Duane Howard and Robert O'Donald, received the State Farmer Degree, which is the highest honor that the state association can bestow upon a boy. Each boy received a certificate and the Gold Emblem of F. F. A. Walter Labay, Area Supervisor, substituted for R. A. Sixty-seven boys from over the state received the degree which is awarded to the upper two per cent.

In order to qualify for the honor the boys must belong to F. F. A. and take vocational agriculture for three years, have made at least $250 from their supervised farm program, have shown leadership ability, and must be able to lead a 45-minute group discussion.

A May graduate of Canyon High School, Leo Erwin was president of the Student-Faculty Congress, vice-president of senior class, lettered in football, served as vice president and sentinel of local FFA chapter. His supervised farm program included feed cattle, wheat, and swine. Leo plans to attend a junior agricultural college in Oklahoma.

Travis Payne served as president, vice president and treasurer of the local FFA chapter, district secretary, and is now secretary of Area 11, delegate to Boys State in Austin last year, local chapter delegate to the National Convention in Kansas City last fall, and to the State Convention in San Antonio, was a member of the district leadership and livestock judging team, and was star farmer of the Chapter and Hereford District. A 1950 graduate of Canyon High School, Travis was a member of the Student-Faculty Congress and plans to enter Texas Tech this fall to continue his study of agriculture. His supervised farm program included wheat, swine, and commercially fed beef cattle.

Duane Howard was secretary of the local chapter, a member of the district leadership and livestock judging team, was a candidate from the Hereford district for a state office, and was alternate delegate to the State Convention in San Antonio. For his supervised farm program Duane worked with swine, for which he made an outstanding record in feeding and showing, dairy, and turkeys. Meat Prices Set by Law of Free Competition

An illuminating discussion of some of the economic factors that affect the meat industry recently came from Nelson R. Crow, publisher of the Western Livestock Journal.

"Now and then," he wrote, "people who don't understand the terrific competition that exists on all of the big livestock markets come out with a tirade against the meat packers or the cattlemen, accusing either one or the other, or both, for the 'high' price of meat. The other day, I sat down for an informal chat with a number of people who own slaughtering plants, livestock buyers, cooler salesmen, office men and a few outsiders like myself. The owner of a slaughtering plant complained bitterly because he was having a hard time making a profit out of his beef. He insisted that his buyers were at fault. They were paying too much money for cattle. He was mad at his competitors because they were downright foolish in bidding so much for cattle that neither they nor he could realize a profit.

"It was quite a lesson in economics to hear these packers discuss their problems. It proved to me that there is so much competition for business among the slaughterers themselves that no one segment of our population has the means to establish livestock or meat prices."

He went on to sum up what buyers and people involved in other phases of the meat industry had to say. Then he described the factors which establish meat prices in these two sentences: "If there's more livestock than can readily be absorbed by consumers, the price goes down and the demand picks up. If the available supply of livestock decreases, then the price goes up and people buy less meat." That is the way the supply-demand system works in a free economy.

What fortunate people we are, in these United States of America! Our fathers purchased for us at great cost the priceless privileges of Democracy; the right of a people to make decisions as to their speech, their government and their religion. This means, as William Jennings Bryan used to say, the right to make our own mistakes, and then the responsibility to correct them. In other words we have accepted responsibility to live together for the common good and in mutual goodwill. We must do two things to be worthy at all of this magnificent inheritance: (1) We must seek to understand and to appreciate what Democracy means, and (2) We must see that Democracy works.

The right to vote carries the responsibility to vote. The right to think for one's self requires that we read and discuss and become responsible and well informed thinkers. The right to free speech calls for the self-control and the wisdom which will make our speech of good temper and of helpful counsel to others, who likewise have the same freedom of speech. The right to worship according to the dictates of our consciences summons us to train our consciences so that we shall choose well, surely that we shall worship somewhere. Democracy is the most elevated of systems of economic, of civil, and of religious living, but it is also the most difficult. For it requires so much of those who assume responsibility to govern themselves. There must be self-discipline; there must be the training of youth in disciplined living; there must be high dedication to the common good, as over against selfish behaviour. A man who lives only for himself is an autocrat and not a democrat.

Democracy challenges each of us to think of every other person as a sister or a brother in the universal family of God; every man is a child of God, who merits respect and concern from us.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger, more democratic character. In the church the ministerial are molding religion, and Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Observe Personal Hygiene to Prevent Spread of Polio

Austin: In addition to the general instructions for community sanitation which are important in preventing poliomyelitis, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, today issued an urgent warning to every individual in Texas to practice strict personal hygiene to protect his own health and that of those about him.

"Of course, cleanliness and personal hygiene are ordinarily taken for granted," Dr. Cox said, "but at this time with the incidence of poliomyelitis having reached a total of 1395 cases, I would like to re-emphasize some personal sanitary measures which may help in preventing the spread of this crippling and often fatal disease."

The State Health Officer stressed the importance of scrupulous cleanliness of the person. Frequent bathing and immaculately clean clothing are vitally necessary. Oral hygiene with thorough brushing of the teeth and the use of a mild antiseptic are recommended. The nasal passages should be kept clean and dental defects corrected immediately.

Sanitation and thorough cleanliness in the home are instinctive with the average housewife, but at this time their importance to health must be re-emphasized. Home sanitation includes those taken-for-granted measures as washing the dishes in hot soapy water and rinsing them in hot clear water; keeping sinks, bathtubs and fixtures scoured clean and rinsed with a mild antiseptic solution; sunning and airing bed clothes, ridding the home of flies, rats and roaches which, since poliomyelitis is believed to be a filth borne disease, are suspected as being responsible for transmission.

"If personal hygiene is combined with good community sanitation and hygiene, it is hard for any disease to get a foothold," Dr. Cox said, "With such a dread disease as poliomyelitis prevalent in the state, no precaution should be overlooked and no bars should be left down for its entrance."

Mrs. L. Leigh Colvin, head of the W. C. T. U.: "It (condoned drinking during last war) resulted in the greatest number of drunkards and alcoholics among veterans in history."

Kids in Texas Are Healthier Than in Past

Austin: Texas school children are much healthier now than they were a year ago, L. P. Sturgeon, state associate commissioner of education, declared today following a careful check made throughout the state.

Increased financial aid to school districts under the Gilmer-Aiken laws enacted by the last legislature has resulted in the establishment of hundreds of health programs in school districts which previously had none and in the expansion of old health programs.

More than 1,000,000 children who had not previously been given safeguards against diseases such as smallpox were immunized during the school year. Epidemics were discovered in their early stages and halted. General health check-ups of children resulted in the treatment of ten of thousands of ailments or physical defects never suspected by parents.

Increased state funds made possible the employment of hundreds of public health nurses, who have assisted doctors and public health officials to institute large scale health programs which reach into every section of many communities.

"The health program in the public schools is now based on the premise that prevention is worth more than a cure," Sturgeon commented. "The programs are receiving enthusiastic support from local residents."

The Kerrville city school system is an excellent example of what is happening all over the state, according to Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Until Gilmer-Aiken funds were made available, Kerrville schools had no nursing service other than that of a county health nurse, who was able to devote only one day a week to the pupils of Kerrville's three schools.

Now a full-time nurse has been functioning a year. Kerrville's residents individually, and through civic and business clubs, have rallied. Kerrville is highly enthusiastic over what has been accomplished in one year, according to E. L. Wildman, superintendent of schools.

A clinic has been established in each school with local agencies providing the furnishings and supplies. Heretofore a 100 per cent immunization program was impossible due to the lack of personnel to enforce regulations. Now every Kerrville child of school age has been tested for smallpox and diphtheria and immunized. Checkups disclosed many unsuspected physical defects. Positive reaction to tuberculosis patch tests were shown by 120 children. The Tuberculosis Society followed up with X-rays and medical examination when parents could not afford them.

Of the 1,700 children tested, it was found 90 had defective hearing. Many children were found to have poor eyesight. Glasses were purchased for underprivileged children by the Lions club. The Rotary Club paid for a number of operations to remove tonsils and adenoids.

Early in the school year, an epidemic of "pink eye" threatened. Medicine was provided by the Kiwanis Club. Treatments were given 171 pupils every three hours for three days by members of the Parent-Teacher Association under the direction of an eye specialist.

The epidemic was halted and the children were back in school with little loss of time.

"In Kerrville the health program is a Progressive and cumulative thing," said Superintendent Wildman. "While the school nurse is the first to admit she could not begin to carry out the program alone, the townspeople candidly admit that the program could not have been possible without the nurse, which takes us back to the original cause of the improved health standards in our young citizens—the Gilmer-Aiken laws the last legislature so wisely enacted."

A LITTLE DIFFERENT

The head of the firm was frowning over a letter. Calling for his chief clerk, he said: "That typist—you certainly didn't engage her on account of her grammar."

"Grammar," said the other. "When you were emphasizing the importance of grammar—well, I thought you said 'glamor!'"

Ben Guill Is Favorable to Farm Program

By Congressman Ben Guill

The farmer has received so much unfair, bad publicity recently that hundreds of citizens have written to me demanding that we do away with a government farm program altogether.

In fairness to the farmer I would like to point out that the basic storable commodities (such as cotton, corn, wheat, soybeans and tobacco) have actually brought a profit of $50,016,353 to the United States government during the last seventeen years.

We must remember, however, that more than 75 per cent of the farmers of the nation raise perishable commodities and it is this group which cost the government money. During the last seventeen years, up until May 31, 1950, the entire agricultural support program has cost Uncle Sam more than two and a third billion dollars.

That's a lot of money to spend in seventeen years but it represents only about one-twelfth of what we have spent in five years for the relief of European countries. And during the last seventeen years, at an average of $138 million a year, the farm support program has helped to keep business good up and down the Main Street of every town in the Panhandle and in the nation as a whole.

But, this year the potato crop alone could easily cost the United States more than five hundred million dollars and the supports on potatoes will be dropped unless the growers agree to quotas. It has been proved again and again that we cannot have supports without quotas. In addition, we have 192 million pounds of butter in Government warehouses. That's far more than one pound for every man, woman and child in the country. We also have 107 million pounds of eggs in Federal storage, 322 million pounds of dry milk and 80 million pounds of cheese.

All this is in storage and is doing no one good, while some people are going hungry both in this country and abroad.

A bill was passed out of the House Agriculture Committee this morning which would appropriate 50 million dollars from the foreign relief fund which is to be spent on repackaging and transportation of these products to places where they will do the most good. This excess produce would be used for relief, for school lunches, for charity and for foreign countries where such commodities are in desperately short supply.

I am very much opposed to spending any money at this time for any purpose except national defense. Nonetheless, the value of the commodities going to waste in government warehouses is many times $50 million. I voted for the extra expenditure in order to prevent a total loss of the commodities.

It is obvious that there is something lopsided about a farm program under which this could happen. The farmers of the Panhandle realize this. This is borne out by the fact that only 16.6 per cent of all those answering the questionnaire I recently sent to every voter in the Panhandle approved of the present program. On the other hand, 50.9 per cent wanted a different approach altogether.

In view of this, I introduced a Farm Bill of my own in the House last week. The Bill outlines the manner in which the farmer himself can participate in the writing of his own agricultural program. It would establish a kind of Agricultural Congress, with farmer representatives from each Farm Credit District and each commodity group. After hearings are held in each District, the Executive Committee formed by the Bill would sift and discuss recommendations coming in from the field and would then make specific suggestions for legislation to Congress.

I have always felt that Government should be moved closer to the people. I have also felt that the farmer could solve his own problems just as intelligently as the economic bureaucrats here in Washington, many of whom have never in their lives been on a farm except on a visit.

There is very little chance of this Bill being passed during this session of Congress because of the lateness of the date and the present desperate war situation. But I have introduced it so my fellow members on the Agriculture Committee can become familiar with it and we can then have a better opportunity to pass it during the next session.

I am happy to report that the Bill has received favorable comment from both the Democratic and the Republican members of the Agriculture Committee and I have received a great deal of encouragement from many sources. I hope we can someday make this dream a reality.
